CRIMINAL REVISION APPLICATION NO. 345 OF 2004

Office Notes, Office Memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders or directions and Registrar's orders	Court's or Judge's orders

CORAM : A.M. KHANWILKAR,J.

DATE : 09.09.2004

P.C.

. Heard Counsel for the parties.

2. Rule made returnable forthwith, by consent Mr. Shaikh waives service for respondent No.1 and A.P.P. for respondent No.2.

2. As short question is involved petition is taken for final disposal by consent. The respondent No.1, the complainant, is personally present in the Court. He has sworn an affidavit on 1st September, 2004, which is tendered across the bar by respondent No.1 and the same is taken on record. The affidavit clearly records that the parties have amicably resolved the matter and are willing to compound the offence. In view of the affidavit, as filed; and as respondent No.1 who is personally present, accepts this position, revision application succeeds. The impugned decisions are set aside in view of the settlement arrived at between the parties coupled with the fact the respondent No.1 who is present in the Court has received the entire amount as per settlement between the parties. Revision Application is disposed of in the above terms.
